

Circulation Guarantee
This certifies that the circulation of the Salt Lake Tribune has been audited and is guaranteed by the Auditor's Certified Circulation Blue Book.

WHICH IS TO SAY
That a disinterested party, a circulation expert, a man who has spent a lifetime on the circulation of the Salt Lake Tribune, has carefully examined the circulation books and methods of The Tribune, and recommends them as honest, reliable and true, to all of which he has appended his signature.

The Tribune is daily adding many more new subscribers than all the other papers, except the Telegram, combined. The people of this community seem to appreciate a real live newspaper with a definite policy. Not vacillating, weak and noncommittal, but consistent, vigorous and frank every day in the year.

The best advertising medium between the Colorado plains and Pacific tidewater is growing bigger and better every day.

The Tribune, in Salt Lake, is the premier newspaper; has by far the largest and best circulation, is so acknowledged and so accredited by every unprejudiced person.

Odd Minutes Make a Bank Account

What do you do with the odd minutes—the in-between-times? Instead of putting them in brooding over the collapsed state of your finances—or your unsatisfactory position—why not use them to your profit?

Develop that little turn for making quick pen and ink sketches or clever little pencil drawings, designs, etc. So far you've only used it to while away an idle hour for your friends or yourself.

Here's a man in The Tribune Want Ads who will pay you for that kind of work.

Or that knack of yours for telling clever stories—get them down on paper.

In The Tribune Want Ads you'll find a market for all these odds and ends of genius.

There's good money in it—and it need not interfere with your regular work.

Tribune Want Columns hold a fund of suggestion for turning odd minutes to account—to a bank account.

Reading the Want Ads today will give you a start—Reading them every day will keep you going toward success and prosperity.
